The Charm of a Simple Dining Room is beautifully suggested in our reproductions of early Sheraton and Chippendale furniture. The low Sideboards with gentle tapering legs, the Closets with quaint mullioned windows, with Tables and Chairs conforming in simple harmony. Wood-craft in its perfect form is apparent in every detail.

GET LARRY SOMERFIELD AGAIN.

Philadelphia Wants Him This Time for a Mining Stock Swindle.

Larry Somerfield, the sure-thing man, was arrested again on Monday night. He was wanted by the Philadelphia police, who charge that he and two other men conspired to defraud George McLean of Pittsburg, out of $23,000 in a mining stock scheme.
The game worked was an old one.
McLean was approached, it is alleged, by one of the trio, who had some worthless mining stock to sell cheap. Later he was called on by another of the gang, who let it be known that he wanted to buy that particular stock and offered to pay a good price for any that could be found. Mr. McLean saw a chance to make money easily and after purchasing the stock was unable to find the man who was so eager to get hold of it.
The Philadelphia police appealed to Inspector McClellan to find Somerfield, and Detective Sergeant Wakefield and Frazee spotted him at Thirty-sixth street and Broadway. He was arraigned in the Tombs police court at John Smith of 207 West 108th street, and was held in $5,000 bail. The detectives also arraigned John Thompson, whom they found with Somer-field, and he was also held in $5,000 bail.
Somerfield is at present awaiting trial for working his celebrated "saw engineer" game, and is out on $5,000 bail, which Martin Engel gave for him.

Demurrer Filed for Canfield.
BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Sept. 22.—John B. Canfield, of Elmira, attorney for Richard A. Canfield, who is under indictment for keeping a gambling house in East Forty-fourth street, New York city, filed a demurrer to the indictment with Supreme Court Justice Herriek in Brooklyn this morning. Argument on the demurrer will be heard by Justice Sewall next Monday.

Gen. H. Kyd Douglas Seriously Ill.
HAGERSTOWN, Md., Sept. 22.—Gen. H.
Kyd Douglas, one of the best known of the ex-Confederate officers now living, is seriously ill at his residence in this city. He was chief of staff to Gen. Stonewall Jackson and served with distinction throughout the war.

EYES INJURED; ASKS $30,000.

Father Sues Firm Where Daughter Got Mist Glasses.

Supreme Court Justice Herriek in Brooklyn yesterday appointed Gustave A. Wes-man guardian ad litem of his twelve-year-old daughter, Dorothy, in order that he might begin an action against H. A. Baker & Co., dry goods dealers of 1720 Broadway, to recover $30,000 damages for injuries to his daughter's eyesight.

In his petition Mr. Wesman says that in September, 1902, his daughter visited the defendants' store to purchase a pair of eyeglasses and that an incompetent employee fitted them. He alleges that

Men's Superfine Merino Underwear.

98c. Instead of $1.50. 1st Fl.

The Shirts are finished with silk fronts and clear pearl buttons. The Drawers have suspender tapes and extra strong gussets in seats. They are the product of the best mill in America—the most particular and uncompromising sticklers in respect to the finish of their goods. The alert eyes of their inspector discovered a few trifling imperfections in this lot. They are so slight in character that you'd never notice their existence unless your attention was called to them. They are standard $1.50 grades. We bought them at a sacrifice and sell them at 98c.

Fine Glass Enriched with Gold.

We have every facility for decorating glass with crests, heraldics, monograms, mottoes and escutcheons in gold and colors. The artistic character

Vose--

An Aristocrat of Pianos

The Vose Piano has an honorable heredity of a half century. It also has a highly distinguished present character. By consistent progress in every piano essential the Vose piano secures accumulating prosperity. Thus it solves the hard problem of a splendid ancestry—makes a success of the past.

The Vose Piano is a square-dealing competitor, rises by merit and not by envious aspersion of rivals. Its claims are positive. Comparisons belong to others. Thus it comes about that the Vose pianos have an army of friends and no enemies.
The number of instruments distributed constantly increases because of the loyalty of friends secured by merit. Thus the foundation of continuous success is laid upon the solid rock of complete confidence.

The WANAMAKER PIANO STORE is a garden of piano gods—the place in which the muse of Melpomene may linger and find accompaniment for song. Here nothing unworthy may enter.
But here, high in the group of piano nobles, appears the Vose—we are honored in the opportunity to present and sustain its enviable reputation.

The task is not difficult. In honest merchandising, faith and works are identical; given the first, the second follows. And so our corps of piano managers, demonstrators and salesmen, believing implicitly in the Vose, put intelligent energy into its presentation, finding it a pleasure to argue a case requiring only truth and gumption.

Vose is—all the Voses are idealists. They are charter members of that artistic guild—small, indeed, which has builded the piano aristocracy of today. In piano-making there are mechanics and artists. A mere artisan never made a real piano. Thus with an ideal that puts a soul of music into a sound body—possibilities of melody and harmony; of expression, orchestral, dramatic and descriptive in the action, durability in the case, the Vose goes on and on—will continue to go onward so long as the Vose corporation has a soul, and saves it.

In a spacious apartment dedicated to the one name "Vose," there is a display of pianos so broad and varied that it would weary one to test them all. But no exhibition of them is too great, and no demand upon time too exacting in showing these pianos to you and yours.

The present is a gala week in our Piano Store. Distinguished vocalists, pianists and organists illustrate our leading pianos and organs. Yesterday afternoon a Vose recital called a splendid musical audience. This morning another Vose recital, this afternoon a special Chickering recital.

The Autumn Millinery Display Is Announced

The rich-hued and imposing assemblage of Hats and Bonnets from Paris and our own work-rooms is holding reception today.

Brilliant is its first attribute, for the rich purples, the gorgeous reds, and bright greens fascinate the eye at first glance—richer, too, by reason of the sharp foil produced by the exquisite grays and the gun-metal tones.

Graceful is the attribute of form, by reason of the curves and rolling flares of the picture hats, the smart boat-shaped turbans and the broadwise sailor hats.

The fur hats introduce the beautiful mole-skin, and animal heads adorn many of the hats. Bunches and rows of birds are seen. But distinguished above all are the rich ostrich plumes that never lose their popularity or elegance.

Laces are prominent in the finer hats, and the white wool lace is one of the season's most pronounced novelties. The rich tones of the new velvets give color-life to the whole scheme—shades of dahlia, or darker—"aubergine," egg plant, the French call it—are prominent.

But description must give way to invitation. Today's one word is Come.

Quite the handsomest assemblage we have ever gathered is here for you to see.
